A Client Review of Southpac Certifications: By Tallai Project Group

Who is Tallai Project Group?

As a proven solution provider, Tallai Project Group (TPG) is committed to assisting organisations in the planning of complex brown field upgrades, as well as greenfield treatment plants, which incorporate both proven and new methodologies and technologies. TPG will become a part of the Tender, Project, Program or Organisation, for as long as required.

TPG's team of over 20 specialists are renowned for their ability to secure greater value and efficiencies for clients through the establishment of innovative commercial frameworks. This is possible because of their years of experience working with a range of contract models including Early Contractor Involvement (ECI), Risk Adjusted Maximum Price (RAMP), Target Outturn Cost (TOC), Design and Construct (D&C), Construct only, competitive TOC and Early Tenderer Involvement (ETI).

What Standards/Regulations of Compliance

TPG's highly specialised industry involves working within a regulated framework of various Acts, Regulations and Standards. Tallai Project Group is currently certified to an integrated system of Quality, Safety and Environmental and working to the Work Health and Safety Act 2011.

How were Southpac Certifications 'more than just a tick'?

"Working with Southpac Certifications was an enjoyable experience. The auditors worked with our company to become certified, rather than looking for ways in which we couldn't be certified. They were very flexible and accommodating to our schedules. We also learnt a lot during the audits and our systems now work better than ever."

Want your organisation's certification to be more than just a tick?

Southpac Certifications is committed to helping organisations get the most benefit from their certification; from the initial stage one audit, throughout the year and for each ongoing surveillance audit, we're with you.

"Southpac Certifications is an excellent choice to certify your business, they are flexible, helpful and professional. Our company would certainly choose Southpac again."
