A Client Review of Southpac Certifications: By Thompson Couplings Limited

Who is Thompson Couplings Limited?

Thompson Couplings Ltd is a public Australian company and owner of a range of patented and trademarked products dedicated to the transmission of power in a large variety of rotating mechanical equipment. Specifically, they design and manufacture shaft couplings and drivelines, all with the unique feature of constant velocity which drastically reduces vibrations, improving the life of the equipment.

What Standards/Regulations of Compliance

Thompson Couplings is certified to ISO 9001:2015 with a range of couplings specifically designed to meet the exacting standards of API 610 (ISO 13709) and ISO 14691 including ATEX certification compliance for zones 1 and 2, where applicable.

Stringent testing is carried out on all products as part of the development stage including engine dynamometer life testing, ultimate torsional stress tester, axial load carrying capacity and electric motor testing of TCJV at angle. Thompson Couplings also adheres to the requirements for Austrade and Trade and Investment Queensland.

How were Southpac Certifications 'more than just a tick'?

"Thompson Couplings have a long-standing relationship with Southpac and have appreciated the way the entire certification process is handled, including the audit, manual updates, process mapping and the ongoing support and training available through the Southpac Group.

We have experienced consistency, personal interest and a good support network in our dealings with Southpac Certifications."

Want your organisation's certification to be more than just a tick?

Southpac Certifications is committed to helping organisations get the most benefit from their certification; from the initial stage one audit, throughout the year and for each ongoing surveillance audit, we're with you.

"Southpac ISO accreditation for Thompson Couplings is the cornerstone of our quality control process. Apart from the mandatory audit work, the support of the Southpac team was invaluable in updating our accreditation from ISO 9001:2008 to ISO 9001:2015.

We highly recommend the Southpac team to any other business seeking to implement and maintain ISO accreditation."
